report from our Bay of Islands' correspondent :- The bark Elizaboth Swift, 4.5 tons, Chase, of N Bedford, arrived at Kororare-ka on the 25th June, having taken 190 bbls sperm since leaving that port on the 18th March. The ship Desdemona, 295 tons, Smith, of N Bedford, was daily expected to arrive, having taken 100 bbls sperm; and the ship Minerva, 291 tons, Swain, also o N Redford, had taken 390 bbls sperm since she last left. The Sydney brig Independence had likewise taken 150 bbls sperm. It will be in the recollection of our readers that not many months since we published report after report of the teeming of our waters, one whale rising under the Eastfield's forefoot and spouling into her bows, on her passage down the guif to Part Napler. And yet the Auckland merchants and ship-owners bewail the want of an export—fold their hands, and let distant foreigners reap this rich reward. Land companies have been wondrously prosperous.
